Our goal is to provide the owners, builders and design community the necessary tools to effectively achieve accessibility compliance on their projects.

Michael Love has presented numerous seminars to architects, landscape architects, interior designers, contractors, city officials, and others on specific topics to share a better understanding of our laws and codes. He has met with members of the Access Board and other accessibility leaders throughout the country and brings solutions from his travels around the world. We would be pleased to discuss training to meet your specific needs.

Topics include:

- Where Does Compliance Start?
- TAS Plan Review
- Learning From Mistakes
- Restaurant Accessibility
- You're In the Accessibility Business
- Accessing Texas
- Understanding the New ADA Guidelines
- The Designer's ADA top 10
- ... And others.
